

THE PETWORTH LITERARY FESTIVAL SCHEME

23 October - 3 November 2024

The aims of the Petworth Literary Festival are to:

- Attract the highest calibre of author to Petworth
- Create a diverse and widely attractive programme
- Encourage participation from the widest possible audience
- Develop the widest interest in and awareness of the written word, fiction and non-fiction
- Stimulate debate and discussion around key contemporary issues
- Engage and inspire young people via community and schools', literary projects and young people's events
- To increase awareness of - and to bring visitors to - Petworth and our festivals

Levels of donations are offered as follows:

Individual Support

Gold Leaf	£2,000	Vellum	£600
Leather Bound	£1,000	Bond	£350

Corporate Support from £2,000

Bespoke business sponsorship packages of named events are available with logo visibility, featured recognition and visibility and opportunities to meet the authors and speakers on the day by prior arrangement.

The Petworth Literary Festival offers Literary Supporters:

- An invitation to the Literary Festival Launch Party hosted by Lord and Lady Egremont at Petworth House on Tuesday, 24 September 2024
- Priority Booking from 11 - 17 September 2024
- A listing in the Literary Festival's literature
- A listing and corporate logo (where relevant) on the Petworth Festival website and promotion via our social media channels
- Two complimentary tickets to the event of choice
- Gold Leaf and Leather-Bound supporters have the opportunity to support a specific author event, either exclusively or on a shared basis

Please note that the Petworth Literary Festival scheme is entirely separate from the summer festival
